ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

OH, YOU CONNORS!
When Connors went against the ball,
With his big arm stout and straight,
Sheel broke loose among the Routers
When Snyder crossed the plate.

Mr. John Henson, aged 39, and Mrs. Cornelia Irvin, aged 40, were married yesterday at the home of the bride in Washington. It was the second marriage for both bride and groom.

Rev. Joseph M. Evans and wife have returned to their Maysville home, after spending the entire winter season in the Sunny South at Houston, Texas, with their daughter, Mrs. George Bruce, and son, Mr. Joseph Evans. Their many friends welcome the venerable couple back home.

Maysville Shut Out the Lexington Team Yesterday,
Score 1 to 0

Ideal Weather, Large Crowd and the Opener a Big Success

He Ambled Home with a "Run."

Fine weather.
Large attendance.
And the home team won!
Don't that sound pretty good, for a starter?

"It was a lovely May day, so the story goes"—that Maysville again made history repeat itself by winning the opening game of the season, as she did last year.

The attendance yesterday afternoon was about 2,500, the grandstand and the bleacher seats being packed, while several hundred persons and a score of autos filled every vacant part of the grounds.

The only omission in the program as announced yesterday, was in the big crowd from Lexington and its "band of 18 pieces," which failed to materialize.

And Mayor Lee's speech was short—very short. In fact he never made a speech. He merely pitched the first ball at 3:20 p. m., and then umpire Kain started something.

Following is the score by innings:

Lexington	A. B. R. H. E. P. O. A. E.

The Court Judge, confronted by this decision, discharged Bradley from custody, expressing regret that he saw no other course to pursue, and also voicing the opinion that the Appellate decision was "bad law." And "bad law" it certainly is, operating as it would under certain conditions to license bigamy. A layman is left to wonder if in the multiplicity of laws with which the Legislatures have supplied Kentucky there is no means of dealing with a case of so flagrant a character, regardless of the decision invoked to set the defendant free. The question is up to the lawyers and the courts.—Courier Journal.

The President has at last made a speech that will not merely be read through; it will be read through many times. The self control shown by Mr. Taft in his Boston speech, the distress he feels in the shattering of one of his dearest ideals through the inexplicable conduct of Mr. Roosevelt, the high sense of duty which has impelled him to make the revelations which will surely shock some sections of the colonel's support, and the reserve force indicated in the argument—all stand out like a human document.—New York Herald.

"We don't bother about things like that," flashed Ware. "What concerns us, when she cackles, is has she laid or has she lied?"

It also makes it a felony, punishable by a term in the penitentiary, for anyone to use dynamite in any stream or pond in Kentucky. Dynamiters will probably hereafter look well to the banks and beds of the streams, and set watches around the ponds, before dynamiting.

School Superintendents Meeting
At Richmond, commencing on Tuesday, April 30th, the sixth annual meeting of the County School Superintendents of Kentucky will be held. The convention will be in session four days and a most interesting program has been arranged. Miss Jessie O. Yancey, Superintendent of the Mason County Schools, is attending the meeting.

The dates for holding the meeting of the Institute Instructors for county teachers' has been changed from May 15th, 16th and 17th, to May 13th, 14th and 15th. The change was made on account of the dates first decided upon interfering with the dates for examinations for certificates for county teachers.

HAPPENINGS IN THE CITIES

Tasha Lama of Mongolia Buys an Auto

SAN FRANCISCO—The Tasha Lama, emperor of Mongolia and next to the head of the Buddhist church, has never taken a bath in his life, but he rides about the streets of Urga, on the far side of the Gobi desert, in the finest limousine that money can buy. Ethan L. Le Munyon of the China American Trading company at Tientsin, who delivered the limousine at Urga, has arrived here on the Nippon Maru.

The car was taken by rail to the edge of the Gobi desert. It made two big packages to stow aboard a camel cart, so Le Munyon filled up the gasoline tank and made the limousine do its own work for the rest of the trip. This involved a journey of 680 miles across the Gobi desert. As the contract required the car's delivery in good condition, and as the roads were rough, Le Munyon had to proceed with caution. He made the journey in ten days, which was three weeks faster than the speediest camel train had ever made it, so the natives say.

Although the lama owns two palaces—one for summer and the other for winter—he lives in a tent in the yard of his winter palace. From the cradle to the grave a Mongolian of the Buddhist faith never takes a bath. He believes that if he did he would be turned into a fish. Le Munyon was received by the lama in his tent. He describes the political head of Mongolia as the dirtiest human being he ever saw, and this in a land whose people are notorious as the most unclean in all the world.

"It was a great trip," said Le Munyon yesterday. "I do not want to deliver any more packages in Mongolia. The natives are friendly and their hospitality is something the victim never forgets."

"Each one carries a shallow wooden dish inside the bosom of his shirt. If he takes a fancy to you, and he usually does, he digs out this dish, licks it out with his tongue, fills it with tea and invites you to drink. If you object to the licking process, as some foreigners do, he will clean it out with the sleeve of his coat. They make tea by boiling tea leaves and mutton fat together, and as the mutton is usually rancid, the combination is calculated to make a lasting impression on the occidental palate."

Cat's Conduct is Up to City for Trial

NEW YORK—Is Minnie, the feline favorite of the inmates of the Inmate Home for Aged Women, a roof-rapping, gravel-scratching, hole-tearing, diabolical example of what a cat should not be, or is Minnie a soft-purring, affectionate, fire-loving and milk-seeking animal, worthy of all the devotion that the women of the home and neighbors in the block can give her?

This is the vital case which is being tried in the court of public opinion in the home, in every drawing-room, in the back yards and out the windows of Garfield place.

Minnie is charged in the indictment brought by William A. Robbins in a complaint to the health department, with having feloniously, and with malice aforethought, ripped, torn, scratched and otherwise made holes in a certain tin roof, situated just over the library of said complainant. The charges, separately and collectively, Minnie indignantly denies through her friend, Mrs. Susan Lane, founder of the home. The indictment describes the roof as being an extension roof, covered with gravel, Minnie is accused of having scratched the gravel off and having torn the tin.

The defense is not insanity. Minnie offers in evidence to refute the charge, four sets of perfectly blunt claws.

The prosecution offers to prove by numerous witnesses that Minnie and another cat, "to the deponent unknown"—a sort of Mary Doe cat—can be thoroughly identified as the leader in the band of feline vandals.

The neighborhood is divided. The board of health has been drawn in and has instructed Minnie, Mrs. Lane, acting as interpreter, that she must remain within the confines of her own home. If she does not, the civil courts will take the case from the Court of Public Opinion of the Garfield place district.

Minnie, upon being asked her opinion of her ancestors and the case in general, remarked "Meow!" She then turned her back on the interviewer, which is supposed to be an expression of disgust with the entire proceeding.

Eats 360 Bananas in Month to Win Bet

CINCINNATI—"I'll win," said the man who was eating 360 bananas on a $10 bet. "I'll win easily."

And John Breen sat down to his fourteenth dozen of bananas on an undertaking to eat thirty dozen in thirty days.

"I have not lost my appetite—eat three square meals a day—and the bananas are just a little dessert."

The wager was made several days ago at a wake, when some friends were joking Breen about his appetite. Here joking Breen about his appetite, he had remarked that once he had eaten three dozen bananas in thirty-five minutes.

Breen completed his feat the night of April 11, when he topped off his last dozen with five dozen boiled eggs and two dozen raw oysters.

Every night Breen would show up at a restaurant and, after taking a couple of glasses of milk, start on the bananas. Fifteen minutes is the longest time he took to finish a dozen. The bananas range in size from seven to nine inches, and were selected.

"I am just a hearty eater; I work hard all day and like to eat," he said. He weighs 190 pounds and is six feet two inches in height. "Somehow I never did get enough green peas. I ate a gallon can of them one day, and then stopped because I was afraid more would hurt me. I can eat a peck of potatoes with a little butter smeared over them; and quail—I could eat four of them every day forever."

Breen came to Cincinnati six years ago from Flemingsburg, Ky. He is a Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton freight handler.

"John never seems to get enough to eat," sighs Mrs. O'Meara, his aunt. "At supper he eats half a dozen potatoes, goodly portions of stewed tomatoes, several large pieces of meat, a few cups of coffee and half a loaf of bread or a similar quantity of foods, and then he announces: 'I'll just go down to the corner and eat them bananas.'"

Fat Juror Excused; Can't Keep Awake

CHICAGO—Only thin men and "bums" are meant for jury service. So reasons John W. White, strenuous butcher and emulator of the obesity propensities of the late "Baby" Bliss.

White struggled along for nearly a week trying to be a perfectly good juror in the Municipal court, but he failed miserably, because he couldn't keep awake.

Bailiffs stood at his side and nudged him in the ribs. 'Twas like trying to tickle a rhinoceros. Then they kicked his shins, pulled his ears and, grasping firmly, shook him by the shoulders.

White would grin sleepily and try to beat his record of the first day, when he stayed awake for ten minutes. But somehow he always slipped a cog. Each time an ardent lawyer waxed eloquent the legal train of thought was wrecked by a peaceful sign or snore.

"Z-z-z, br-r-r-r, whew-ew-ew-ew!" The lawyer usually became indignant, and then the kicking process had to be done all over.

Matters reached a climax the other day when White appealed to the one whom he blamed for all his troubles—the man who impeached him as a juror—Municipal Judge Walker.

"Jury service gives me sleeping sickness," he said.

Then he mentioned his weight—310 pounds—and the fact that he is a butcher and has spent most of his time for several months in the ice box of his brother's meat market at 26 South Fifth avenue. He said he just couldn't stand the warm courtroom any longer.

"You see, only thin men and bums are meant for jury service," said White. "A man who spends most of his days in an ice box, or a heavy-weight who worked strenuously can't stand this program of doing nothing. This warm air just makes a fellow sleepy."

He was excused from further service.

A DEMONSTRATION OF SUIT VALUE AT A GIVEN PRICE $20.00

We are not saying a word about good, better or best. This is a demonstration of value at a given price. We are willing to leave you alone with the suits themselves and let them argue the case with you.

We have our own idea about $20 value what it usually is, and what it ought to be. That is why we have made this week our $20 Suit Week; we want you to see for yourselves just what we have accomplished along the lines of improved merchandise at the price.

Come here with the idea of being your own judge and your own jury. You will not be interfered with by any of the salespeople. They will simply act as stock clerks for you, merely assisting you to the evidence desired.

The suit is for $20 of your money, and court suit all the week. You are assured. Straw hats now selling.

NOTES OF THE GAME.
The Lexington Colts are good lookers and a fine set of fellows.

Hope we'll trim the "Blue Grass Beauties" again today and tomorrow, too.

Game this afternoon at 3:15, Maysville vs. Lexington. Sanford pitches for Maysville.

Hate off to Manager Carmony for his team—work. Keep it up, old boy, and the mule's yours.

The admission to the grandstand is 15 cents. Remember this, as the impression is out that it is only 10 cents.

Glen McCann, late manager of the Maysville team in the Bluegrass League, is in Chicago and figures on playing with one of the local semi-pro clubs, probably the Spaldings.

On June 7th of last year, Maysville defeated Lexington 1 to 0 in a game which was almost a duplicate of yesterday's victory. Baseball has some singular coincidences.

It was a "grandstand finish." The last half of the ninth inning. No runs. Maysville at the bat; 2 men out; 2 strikes on the batter, then Connors turned the trick with his big stick, for a single, allowing Snyder to cross the plate—and it was all over.

President T. M. Russell of the Maysville ball team came up from Cincinnati yesterday, where he is receiving treatment for his eyes at a hospital, specially to witness the opening game and attend to other matters connected with the Maysville Amusement Co. He returned to Cincinnati this morning and will have to remain some time until his eyes are benefited. He is much improved.

Giving Mr. Taft 18 in Massachusetts, he now has 430 delegates instructed and pledged; Colonel Roosevelt has 208.

MAN AND THE SOIL.
Dr. R. V. Pierce of Buffalo, author of the Common Sense Medical Adviser, says "why does not the farmer treat his own body as he treats the land he cultivates. He puts back in phosphate what he takes out in crops, or the land would grow poor. The farmer should put back into his body the vital elements exhausted by labor, or by ill-health induced by some chronic disease." Further, he says, "the great value of any Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is in its vitalizing power. It gives strength to the stomach and purity to the blood. It is like the phosphates which supply nature with the substances that build up the crops. The far-reaching action of Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is due to its effect on the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition. Diseases that begin in the stomach are cured through the stomach. A bilious spell is simply the result of an effort made by the liver to catch up when over-worked and exhausted. I have found the 'Discovery' to be unsurpassed as a liver regulator and rich blood-maker."

Miss LOTTIE KNEELY of Perth, Kansas, says: "I will here add my testimony of the effectiveness of your remedy upon myself. I was troubled with indigestion for two years or more. Doctored with three different doctors besides taking numerous kinds of so-called 'stomach cures' but received no permanent relief. I was run down, could not sleep at night with the pain in my chest, caused by gas on the stomach. Was weak, could eat scarcely anything although I was hungry nearly all the time. About one year and a half ago I began taking your 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and after having taken several bottles am nearly cured of stomach trouble. Can now eat without distress and have gained fifteen pounds in weight. I thank you for your remedy and the good it has done in your good work."

RECORD OF A GREAT MEDICINE

Doctors Could Not Help Mrs. Templeton—Regained Health through Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound.

Hooper, Nebraska.—"I am very glad to tell how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has helped me. For five years I suffered from female troubles so I was scarcely able to do my work. I took doctors' medicines and used local treatments but was not helped. I had such awful bearing down pains and my back was so weak I could hardly walk and could not ride. I often had to sit up nights to sleep and my friends thought I could not live long. At my request my husband got me a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I commenced to take it. By the time I had taken the seventh bottle my health had returned and I began doing my washing and was a well woman. At one time for three weeks I did all the work for eighteen boarders with no signs of my old trouble returning. Many have taken your medicine after seeing what it did for me. I would not take $1000 and be where I was. You have my permission to use my name if it will aid anyone."—Mrs. SUSIE TEMPLETON, Hooper, Nebraska.

The Pinkham record is a proud and peerless one. It is a record of constant victory over the obstinate ills of woman—ills that deal out despair. It is an established fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has restored health to thousands of such suffering women. Why don't you try it if you need such a medicine?

EYE-GLASS SPECIALISTS

There are very few people who do an exclusive eye-glass business. Most people who sell glasses give their time and attention to some other calling and only fit glasses when they have nothing else to do. We have no side lines. We do nothing but examine eyes for errors of refraction and make good glasses to correct any error that can be corrected with glasses. If we tried to do a dozen different things we could not learn any one of them thoroughly.
